

New Initiatives

EOPF - Electronic Official Personnel Folder

DoDEA and DLA are the two agencies being used as the DoD test sites. Since they went web based back in February they are experiencing a lot of problems. They still are not at full operating capability because of the problems so, CPMS has not deployed to any other agency yet.

APMS XXI

APMS XXI will not be deployed due to upcoming changes that will occur with NSPS.

The award module, is still under consideration.
